

Tenure-earning faculty normally apply for tenure during the sixth year of continuous service. In rare instances, a faculty member may encounter a situation warranting a tenure clock adjustment. In such instances (as indicated below), an adjustment may be granted. Faculty members must apply for a tenure clock adjustment and receive approval from the president or president's representative at the time the situation warranting such adjustment occurs¹. Please attach supporting documentation for all requests and return this form to the Office of Faculty Excellence, Millican Hall, Suite 351.

² Approved leave under the Family Medical Leave Act (FMLA) is a reason to adjust an employee's tenure clock. Faculty members interested in considering a tenure clock adjustment should contact Faculty Excellence at 407-823-1113 to discuss the reasons and the procedure.

³ An employee who is credited with tenure-earning service at the time of initial appointment may request, in writing, that the president or president's representative withdraw all or a portion of such credit. An employee may make such a request only one time, and the request must be received before the end of the spring semester prior to the fall semester of the employee's final year of eligibility. The original details of tenure credit as explained in the hiring letter/offer letter must be attached.
