CPE Conducted for Tenure and/or Promotion to _____

The cumulative progress evaluation provides an evaluation of progress towards tenure and/or promotion. UCF Regulation 3.010 Faculty Evaluation and Improvement guides this process. Beginning in the Spring with the second year of employment (or the first year, if tenure credit was given) and continuing annually, an employee who is eligible for tenure and/or promotion to the rank of associate professor shall receive a cumulative progress evaluation by the unit tenured faculty; the department chair, school director, or unit head; and the dean. All faculty, at their request may receive a cumulative progress evaluation.
