

College of Arts and Humanities Strategic Goals

- By leveraging partnerships, be in and of our community, creating a positive impact on lives and livelihoods, underscoring the value of a liberal arts education, and demonstrating the importance of lifelong learning.
- Construct a technology-rich arts center with flexible, state-of-the-art spaces that will allow for traditional and innovative performances.
- Increase annual giving and major gifts, in number of donors and dollars.
- Provide positive, high-impact student experiences that grant all students, faculty, and staff opportunities to access the arts and humanities.
- Identify and expand distinguished undergraduate and graduate programs to increase their prominence and enrollment.
- Foster an environment that encourages cross-disciplinary collaborations and activity.
- Provide opportunities to strengthen the research and educational missions of the university.
- Champion diversity and inclusion; diverse viewpoints strengthen decisions and inspire innovation.

Vision

The College of Arts and Humanities seeks to enhance and develop programs of excellence in both the arts and humanities that are recognized for their academic quality, creative output and economic impact in our community.

We will harness our scale, diversity and excellence to achieve the greatest impact on our campus, regional, and global communities. We pursue our significant opportunities for interdisciplinary endeavors and recognize the impact that traditional and innovative approaches in the arts and humanities can have across all disciplines.

The college's impact statement matches the university's:

We use the power of scale and the pursuit of excellence to solve tomorrow's greatest challenges and to make a better future for our students and society. Through learning, discovery and partnerships, we transform lives and livelihoods.